

The Three Sighs: Sorrow, Hope, & Bliss

Harriett Abrams
(c. 1758-1821)

Larghetto

S.

Pno.

5

Harriett Abrams (c. 1758-1821) published several collections of vocal works and was a renowned soprano known for her renditions of arias by G.F. Handel. Abrams performed in high-profile London concert venues and was praised by Charles Burney for the sweetness and good taste of her singing.