

Consolation

Claudio José Domingo Brindis de Salas Garrido
(1852-1911)

58 IV

Vln.

Pno.

61 ritard. più lento riten. decresc. p

64 ritardando ed allargando con forza Lento pp

Red. Red.

Claudio José Domingo Brindis de Salas Garrido (1852-1911) was a Cuban violinist and composer. After touring in Cuba and Mexico, he studied at the Conservatoire de Paris and toured throughout Europe to great critical acclaim. He was the director of the Conservatoire de Haiti beginning in 1875 and was considered one of the best violinists of his day. Additionally, he wrote several works for violin.