

Morrer Sonhando

Anacleto de Medeiros
(1866-1907)

Vagaroso

Pno.

6

Anacleto de Medeiros (1866-1907) was a Brazilian composer, conductor, and musician. The son of a freed enslaved person, he became an expert at most wind instruments and specialized in saxophone. His approximately 100 compositions were widely performed, and he founded and conducted a number of bands throughout Brazil. His band Corpo de Bombeiros recorded some of the first albums in Brazil.