

Sonata No. 3, Op. 1: Allegro

Maria Frances Parke (1772-1822)

Piano

6

12

Maria Frances Parke (1772–1822) was an English pianist and composer who was a leading soprano soloist in concerts and oratorios throughout England. Parke sang in the Handel Commemoration concerts in 1784 and for Franz Joseph Haydn’s benefit concert in 1794. Her compositions include five piano sonatas, a divertimento and rondo, and three vocal works.